

CAMPUS STORE

Spring 2014

Textbook Rental Agreement

I am renting and am in receipt of the rental book(s) shown on the receipt. I acknowledge that the books, whether new or used, are in good condition with all included CDs and components, and are the property of the Southwestern College Campus Bookstore.

I understand it is my responsibility to return the books in similar reusable condition with all included CDs and components (with minimal underlining or highlighting, no water damage or torn pages, etc.) or I will pay the replacement costs listed on the receipt plus any applicable taxes. (Rental fee cannot be applied towards purchase price)

I understand rental books may be eligible for rental fee refund ONLY if returned by Saturday, January 25, 2014. Any rental after January 25, 2014 will be final and the rental fee is non refundable.

I am responsible for the risk of loss from any cause, including theft, lost items or damages as determined by the Campus Bookstore.

I will not exceed the limit or cancel the debit/credit card used to secure my rentals until all the rented materials are either returned to the Bookstore or the replacement costs indicated are paid in full. I authorize the Campus Bookstore to charge this card for the full amount of the new replacement cost plus any applicable taxes. I acknowledge that these charges will not be refunded. If for any reason the card does not go through, a hold will be placed on my records and I will be ineligible to rent books from the Campus Store in future terms.

I am liable for all new replacement costs in the event I sell my books back at buyback and/or return my rental books to any location other than the Chula Vista Campus Bookstore.

I will return my book on or before the due date of May 30, 2014 to avoid rental replacement costs and any applicable taxes.

I have read and fully understand the terms of this agreement as outlined and I agree to adhere to all conditions and terms as stated.
